SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

On behalf of the American Society of Civil Engineers Los Angeles Younger Member Forum (ASCE LA YMF), thank you for considering sponsoring our annual International Women in Engineering Day (INWED) celebratory event!

This special gathering highlights the accomplishments of women in engineering and offers a platform for local professionals and students to connect, learn, and grow. The program will feature networking opportunities, interactive workshops, panels, a keynote, and scholarship awards recognizing outstanding talent in the field.

Partner with us to support a meaningful local event and make a lasting impact within the Los Angeles engineering community.
